

Please don't allow cell phone use on planes. We are all captive audiences when on a plane and to sit and listen to someones conversation for hours would cause so much anger you would have air rage like never before.